1. Copyright Assignment

The author hereby assigns to Medicina Sportiva the copyright to the above article, throughout the world, in any form, in any language, for the full term of copyright, effective upon acceptance for publication in the journal.

2. Author's Warranties

The author warrants that the article is original, written by stated author/s, has not been published before, contains no unlawful statements, does not infringe on the rights of others, and that any necessary written permissions to quote from other sources have been obtained by the author/s.

3. Conflict of interest

Authors have the ethical obligation to submit credible research results. Authors are responsible for recognizing and disclosing financial and other conflict of interest. If the conditions of funding this research have the potential to bias or otherwise discredit the research, the author must state explicitly whether potential conflicts do or do not exist.

4. Ethical standards

The author confirms that the appropriate Ethical Committee approval was sought where necessary and is acknowledged in the text of the paper.

5. Rights of Authors

Authors retain the following rights:

- all proprietary rights relating to the article, other than copyright, such as patent rights,
- the right to use the substance of the article in future own works, including lectures and books,
- the right to reproduce this article for their own purposes, provided the copies are not offered for sale.

Any other use of the article requires permission from the publisher.

6. Co-Authorship

If the article was prepared jointly with other authors, the signatory on this form warrants that he has been authorized by all co-authors to sign this agreement on their behalf, and agrees to inform his co-authors of the terms of this agreement.
