

Guidelines for referees (for the Editor only)

Manuscript: number

Title:

General evaluation of the scientific value of the manuscript and its suitability for publication:

- Excellent                       Good, recommended for publication                       Poor, not publishable. Please explain!
- Publishable, but in journal of another type, for example:

The manuscript needs  major,  moderate,  minor or  no revision.

Is quality of the manuscript normally expected for a paper in an international refereed scientific journal as regards?

- Format (title, abstract, text, style, references)?                       YES                       NO
- Is the manuscript appropriate for Cultura.
International Journal of Philosophy of Culture and Axiology?                       YES                       NO
- Is the subject important and of current interest?                       YES                       NO
- Is the subject clearly explained and well argued?                       YES                       NO
- Is the material original?                       YES                       NO
- Are the methods adequate and up to date?                       YES                       NO
- Are the results new or significant?                       YES                       NO
- Is the literature relevant and current?                       YES                       NO
- Is its language fluent?                       YES                       NO
- Results (description, analysis, conclusions)?                       YES                       NO
- Relation to previous research (background, aim, cited literature, discussion)?                       YES                       NO

Comments (for the Editor only):

Reviewer's Information (required, will not be revealed to authors)

Name	E-Mail	Telephone
Affiliation

Date

Signature

---